MIAMI MADNESS

Opening Dec. 4 at the Bass Museum of Art in Miami Beach is "Russian Dreams," a show developed in partnership with Moscow's culture ministry. The exhibition presents artworks dating from before the fall of Communism to the more lunatic trends of today. Curated by Olga Sviblova, director of Moscow's Multimedia Art Museum, "Russian Dreams" includes highlights like AES+F's video of corpses clad in designer dresses floating over a catwalk, and a motorized, feather-covered cannon by Alexei Kostroma.
